EDITOR'S CORNER:

Hello, Neighbors. Yes, we realize that things seem a little slow here in Brisbane now that the Western Days Celebration is over, and Election Day has come and gone. But things need not go into that familiar slump--after all, there are lots of things to look forward to. School is out--the kids are looking around for something to do--places to go for the summer. The first contingent of Boy Scouts leave for Camp Royaneh on the 17th--the Scout Carnival is tomorrow night at the school house--(June 10th)--we have the 4th of July coming up--less than a month away--some of us have our own vacations to plan--and then there's the gigantic problem facing us in regards to WHAT TO DO FOR THOSE YOUNGSTERS WHO ARE STAYING HOME THIS SUMMER. I think this is the most important problem of all. I would like to suggest that some definite program be drawn up to take care of these wandering little souls--with "nothing to do". We must find something for them to do, before they take the matter into their own mis-guided hot little hands. You and I know that idle hands can get into mischief--well, it's up to us to see that enough interesting things happen this summer to keep the little minds and hands too busy for mischief. Weekly chaperoned dances should be planned for the teen-agers. Weekly baseball games should be planned for right here in Brisbane. We have a ball park--why not utilize it? Some energetic man with an athletic background could get up a dozen different ball teams right here in town. Let the small boys form their own league right here. I suggest that the merchants cooperate by donating small prizes. I suggest that the mothers get together and plan small parties for the girls. Let them get dressed up once in awhile. And now about someone planning a group of plays for the future thespians to act in--these plays could be put on at the Recreation center, perhaps. Personally, I have always felt it a tragic thing that we had no skating rink for the small fry. Why can't we have pony rides all the time during the summer months? Let's do something to keep our youngsters off the hillsides--where most of our summer grass fires start. A small child, plus a few stolen matches--can equal a holocaust making a homeless wanderer of every citizen in Brisbane. How about some letters from some of you, with suggestions for the betterment of summer conditions for the small fry. Let's look at this thing thru the eyes of our children. We all know that horrible let-down feeling of having NOTHING TO DO. Let's do something about it? You can count on space in this paper for all the publicity you want--you can count on me for all the public pleas you may want to make. You can even count on me for some of the work--just so long as it does not interfere with the publication of this paper. LET'S GO, BRISBANE! LET'S FIND SOMETHING FOR THE YOUNGSTERS TO DO THIS SUMMER!

NEWS AND NOTES:

MARRIAGE PLANS:

The marriage of Lois Netzer of San Francisco to Rudy Richards, son of Mrs. Mary Arcotti of Brisbane--will take place at the Church of Epiphany at Amazon and Naples Sts. in San Francisco on June 17th, at 10 a.m. with Father Sheehan officiating. Reception for invited guests will be held following the ceremony, at the American Legion Hall in Brisbane.

MINSTREL SHOW SHAPING UP:

At last Monday's rehearsal of the chorus line and the glee-club at the schoolhouse, Bob Boomer, assisted by Bob Bolden, took publicity "shots" of the chorus in action, and of the glee-club rehearsing some of the numbers to appear in the Minstrel show planned for September. Two new numbers have been added to the glee-club repertoire, with "NIGHT AND DAY" giving the newer members a little trouble. A.E. Kennedy's solo part during the singing of "LORD'S PRAYER" is masterful, and Marvin Moore's solo part in "WHIFFENPOOF" adds to it immensely. Moore has a high, clear tenor. Two new members have joined the glee-club, being Mable Sapp and Red Gregory. There are three new girls in the chorus line--being Barbara Wallis, Barbara Stewart, and Sharlene Hatcher. Beth Duncan is to be commended for her good work at the piano, giving of her time and energy without fail.

According to Frankie (Maestro) King, additional talent is needed to round out the cast for the Minstrel show. Anyone with dancing, musical, vocal, or comedy talent may see him at the Luxury Cleaners any day, in order to get an appointment for auditions. Particularity needed are "bones" players. If you have this particular talent, please get in touch with Frankie at once. You are needed.

FIRE!

Monday evening's fire on King's Road did some damage to the Cotton-Wagner place, most of it confined to the kitchen.

TUBERCULAR SOCIETY DINNER:

Among the local residents attending the Tubercular Society's dinner at the Villa Chartier on El Camino Real last Monday evening were Blanch Terry, Hazel Hosking, Thelma Tyler & Juanita Seiss. One of the principal speakers of the evening was Dr. Harold Choep, Doctor of Health & Welfare in San Mateo County. The evening ended with motion pictures depicting the personal feelings of the tubercular patient in the State-owned Sanitariums.

--- BRISBANE'S WESTERN DAYS CELEBRATION --- as seen thru the eyes of your EDITOR.

On Friday, the 2nd of June, the Carnival grounds opened at approximately 6:30, with a stiff wind blowing. Despite the chilliness, the first night's business topped all expectations. On Saturday, June 3rd, the Carnival grounds opened early in the afternoon, with the weather slightly warmer, but with the same stiff wind blowing. Saturday night found every eating establishment, bar, nightclub, dancehall, and soda fountain packed to the doors. The carnival grounds were jammed with shivering revelers, and the wisest "Western" folks there were the pseudo-Indians, wrapped in heavy blankets from the tips of their red noses to the tips of their cold toes. The "young things" shivered in their thin silk western shirts and scarfs, refusing to cover up their western finery with heavy coats. The street dance was enjoyed by those hardy souls who could disregard the wind blowing off the bay, while the Legion hall was crowded with the teen-age crowd and their jitterbug gyrations. The clubs and restaurants were crowded with the adult crowd who drifted back and forth from carnival to club.

Sunday dawned bright and sunny, but with the same chilly wind. Spirits were a little low after Saturday night's frivolity, but when the parade started to form, people seemed to cheer up a bit. As we walked down the main street toward a vantage spot from which to watch the parade, we got a definite lift from the sight of JUDY WOODARD posing on the front fender of HORSETRADER ED'S red convertible, while TONY GRASSO took photos. Also getting his picture taken was TED DAGLER and party, in the Dagler horse and buggy outfit. A little farther down the street was JACK YARBOROUGH, deeply engrossed in quieting a little saddle-horse, while the neighborhood youngsters were busily trying to scare the poor thing to death with their cap pistols. "BANG! YOU'RE DEAD!" seemed the theme of the day for the very young.

Choruses of "WAL, HOWDY--PODNUH!" greeted us as we strolled on down the street. HANK SHULTZ in full Western regalia yelled "GO FER YER GUNS!" as we yodeled past LAING'S FOUNTAIN. Inside was AGNES LEHNING, as purty a little filly as we ever did see a-yankin' sodas like mad! FRED & SHIRLEY LAING called out to us as we stopped in for our morning coffee. Fred was hoppin' around like a flea on a hot griddle, and managed to look three times as busy as he really was. (Or is it vice-versa?) As we left Laing's, we hailed TOM GUZINSKY, riding up the hill on the back of a palomino. Next we encountered "Zeke", in the person of RICHARD TRANTHAM, SR., and just about busted our bustle when "Zeke" dropped his over-sized overalls right in the middle of Visitation Street, and thar he were, right in front of everbuddy, by cracky--IN HIS RED UNDERWEAR! DAN CASE, riding a spirited pony, hailed us as he was trotting by.

We stopped in at the FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH for another cuppa cawfee, and were immediately surrounded by all the lovely young things in their bright western regalia. A doggone bunch of raving beauties, by gum! And the young fellas, how handsome they all looked in their mustaches and sideburns---with ten gallon hats perched on the back of their heads. How proud we can be of our younger generation, if only we would stop to remember the trials of our own youthful years! These kids were out to enjoy themselves, and out to enjoy themselves---that they did, bless 'em!

Suddenly came the call "HERE IT COMES!" and the mad rush for the sidewalk began. We found ourselves perched on the hood of a parked automobile, where we were content to scribble like mad for the next half hour. Little did we know that what we put down on our little pad was much too much for the available space in this little newspaper! But we can give you the list of prizes as awarded by the Judges, at the Carnival grounds, after the parade.

After the judging at the Carnival grounds, the entire population (it seemed to us) of Brisbane gathered at the bandstand for a full hour's entertainment by the talented BUNNY CAROL'S DANCING SCHOOL GROUP. Then all headed for the ballpark and the DONKEY BASEBALL GAME, which was a hilarious high-spot of the entire Western Days celebration. Just EVERYBODY got into the act!!

Umpiring (?) the "game" was DICK "DAISY" HOSKINGS, of the wandering bosom. In the V. F. W. lineup, the following "characters" could be found either riding--falling off--or getting tromped on by---the main characters, the Donkeys; JESS (Whoa, Horse!) CHAPMAN, RUNT (Zeke) TRANHAM, PUNCHY (Oh, my achin' back) DURHAM, HERBIE (Oh! gargthroat!) GAGNIER, LEON ('taint fair!) DURHAM, CORKY (Off-Balance) CORDOZE, PORKY (Hold still, darn it) HATCH, FRED (Ouch! Halp!) CHAPMAN, CHUCK (Gimme room) LEE, GEORGE (Gee! Haw!) NAUGHTON, JIM (Upsey-daisy) CRAWFORD, E. (Gimme that bat!) CONWAY, EDDIE (This is a horse??) ROLLAND, and somebody called LOU--who wouldn't identify himself.

On 'tother side of the fence was the FIREMEN'S SOCIAL CLUB TEAM, with the following fire-eaters biting the dust: LOU (Home-run) BILLINGSLEY, JOHNNY (you forgotcha horse) BRODEL, FRED (Aircscout) SCHMIDT, HAROLD (Mailman) TIKKANEN, JACK (Giddyap) VAN KIRK, HAROLD (Aw, shucks) ARTHURS, RED (Powerhouse) GREGORY, BILL (Ouch!) RIGGOTT, WALT (I got it!) PIPKO, LARRY (Stand still, blast it!) MILLS, JOHN (Oh, well--) BELL, J. (What the heck) THOMPSON, CHUCK (get outa my way) MAY, NICK (one run) GUICE, CLIFF (Whiskers) MOZZETTI, and DAISY (You-know-who) HOSKINGS (mystery woman.)

The score???? Well, I THINK the Firemen won---6 to 4. But from where we sat, the DONKEYS came up winners, with all away, one to go!

BRISBANE, WE'RE PROUD OF YOU--WE'RE PROUD OF THE WAY YOU HAVE ALL COOPERATED TO MAKE THIS THING THE HUGE SUCCESS IT WAS. THERE HAS NOT BEEN ONE DISSENTING VOICE AMONG YOU SINCE THIS PAST WEEKEND. WE MAY AS WELL FACE IT--WE'RE A BUNCH OF DOGGONE GOOD SPORTS, AND WE OUGHT TO DO THESE THINGS MORE OFTEN! WE'LL BECOME PRETTY DOGGONE BIG SPOT ON THE MAP OF CALIFORNIA IF WE CAN KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK, AND WE'LL LICK THE GUY WHO SEZ WE CANT!
